

p. 76 A1 a,b,c

a) A flight attendant looks after passengers on a plane.

A secretary works in an office.

A doctor's assistant does exercises with people who have medical problems.

A physiotherapist supports people with problems.

An engineer develops machines or buildings.

A landscape gardener designs gardens.

A software developer creates computer programs.

A musician plays a musical instrument.

A plumber installs and repairs heating and water systems.

A lifeguard makes sure people are safe when swimming.

A social worker looks after patients in the doctor's office.

b) The flight attendant:
He likes traveling and helping people.
He says it's exciting for him to wake up in a different city every day.

The secretary: has a stressful job.

The doctor's assistant:
Sometimes she works in an office and sometimes she works with the patients.

The plumber works in the family business. His father and his grandfather work as plumbers too.

The physiotherapist. He loves to see when his patients can move without any pain.

The lifeguard. She must be fit.

The software developer. He can imagine a life without computers.

The engineer. She loves to see buildings that she helps to build.

The social worker. He knows when he helps people that he is doing the right job.

The musician. She plays the piano and she was 5 years old.

The landscaper. He loves making things with his hands.

a) 1. I don't think that I want to do that because it's a stressful job.

2. I don't think that I don't because it's a stressful job and everyone wants something for you.

3. I'm afraid of squirrels.

4. I don't like this job because I'm not so good at repairing things.

5. I don't like touching people every day.

6. I like swimming but it's very tiring for me.

7. I don't like to sit every day

for a computer.

8. It's an interesting job.

9. It's an interesting and important job. I like to help people.

10. I love to play the piano. It's an interesting job.

11. It's a wonderful job to be every time on the side.