

TB p.79 A7

Keith Haring was a drawer he was born in 1958 in Reading, Pennsylvania. Because he was a very good drawer he go with 18 years studying at the art school in Pennsylvania. In New York he understand that he be a very good drawer. One day he was riding the subway and saw a black panel where an advertisement was 15 supposed to go. That give him a idea. Ever when he saw whenever he saw a board like this he drew chalk on it. The people love the drawings and leaved it on. Somewhere he was so famous that he opened his own shop with midshipman's tails. Leather he death in 1990. In 2008 it was a exhibition in Spain where you can see 200 pieces of his work.