

I think that's horribal

The animals suffer and it's not going well

Podcast about „industrial farming“

Text for the Podcast:

Hello_____ and welcome to my Podcast about „industrial farming“

Okay than we start with the first question

Questions:

Eat you industrail products and when yes, what is you faforite product?

What is the good site of dis product and what is the bad site?

have you ever eaten products from the country and do you think it was better as the industrial product?

What is your opinion about industrial farming?

What is the good and the bad site of industrail farming?

What do you think, what do we have to do to stop it?

would you like to say something at the end?

Okay thank you for the Podcast and frome your honist opinion.
