

Textbook page 76-77 A1

1. Flight attendant
2. Secretary
3. Doctors assistant
4. Plumber
5. Physiotherapist
6. Life guard
7. Software developer
8. Engineer
9. Social worker
10. Musician
11. Landscape gardener

a)

A flight attendant looks after passengers on an Plane. And gives them food and drinks.

A secretary works in an office.

A musician plays a musical instrument.

A landscape gardener designs gardens.

A software developer creates computer programs.

A engineer develops machines or buildings.

A social worker supports people with problems.

A plumber installs and repairs heating and water systems.

A lifeguard makes sure people are safe when the swim.

A doctor's assistant looks after patients in the doctor's office.

A physiotherapist does exercises with people who have medical problems.

b)

They all like their job very much. Everyone has different opinions about what is good about a job and what is not so good about a job. The flight attendant says that he likes helping people and he likes waking up nearly every morning in a new city. The secretary says that her job is sometimes stressful. The doctor's assistant says that she likes the office work but she loves working with the patients. The plumber says that his grandfather and his father were master plumbers and he also wants to be a master plumber. He also says that a customer now that they can trust us. The physiotherapist says that it is so rewarding to see my patients being able to move after treatment without any pain. The lifeguard says that she has to keep fit and she sometimes gets paid for sunbathing. This are the best days she says. The software developer says that he loves computers and he can't imagine life without software, that's why he turned his hobby into a job. The engineer says that she is a math person and when she stands in front of a building she sees all those numbers before her eyes. The social worker says if he can help people with their problems he knows he is doing the right job. The musician says that she started playing the piano when she was five years old. She knew she wanted to do this as a job. The best for her at her job is when she can play in front of an audience. The landscape gardener says that he wouldn't want to work on a computer all day he likes working outside and doing things with his hands.