If you become a plumber you will watch what they do.

If you become a social worker you are ill or old.

If you want to become an engineer you will have a house.

If you become a social worker you will get early.

If you become a doctor assistant you will help other people's.