

B6

As a consumer, I would take care to buy regional things and especially organic. As a city resident I would find it good if there were school gardens or roof gardens.