

a = Hello and welcome everybody to the discussion about the pros and cons of industrial farming.

My guest is Mike. He is a consumer.

M = He I'm Mike. I like to eat meat every day.

For its ~~very~~ important, that the prices are low.

I don't think about food

a = Mh, you don't think about disadvantages. What about the chemical input, the climate ~~error~~ the environment? Do you think it is a good life for you and the animal.

M = yes, I thought about these points, but for me, the taste of meat is all I need. I don't care about the environment.

~~a = Do you have a family?~~

~~M = No~~

a = thank you Mike. It's quite a unusual opinion.
Good by.
