

- (a) A flight attendant looks after passengers on a plane.
An engineer develops machines or buildings.
A secretary works in an office.
A musician plays a musical instrument.
A plumber installs or repairs heating and water systems.
A social worker supports people with problems.
A landscape gardener designs gardens.
A physiotherapist does exercises with people who have medical problems.
A lifeguard makes sure people are safe when swimming.
A software developer creates computer programs.
A doctor's assistant looks after patients in the doctor's office.

- (b) Flight attendant: it's exciting to wake up in a different city almost every day. Like helping people.
- secretary: sometimes stressful. ten things all at once. very rewarding. so many things done.
 - doctor's assistant: some of the stories are better than the thrillers on TV. like ~~answering~~ ^{answering} the phone, writing bills
 - plumber: family business. Customer knows that I can trust us.
 - physiotherapist: it's rewarding to see ^{the patient} ~~my patients~~ able to move about again after a treatment without any pain.
 - lifeguard: have to keep fit. some days get paid for sunbathing.
 - software developer: can't imagine a life without computers.
 - engineer: if she looked at a building she instantly sees all those numbers. how high, how heavy.

Julina
Apfelbaum

- social worker: help by the problems. He know he doing the right job.
- musician: love working with the singers. Best thing is performing in front of an audience.
- landscape gardeners: doing things with the hands.

9

I think an flight attendant has a exciting job.

I think an engineer has a highly specialised job.

I imagine a ~~secretary~~ Secretary's job must be very stressful.

I think an lifeguard has a dangerous job.

I imagine a lanscape gardener job must be difficult.

I imagine a musician's job must be interesting.

I think an plumber has a badly paid job.

I think an software developer has a boring job.

I think an physiotherapist has a well paid job.

I imagine a social worker's job must be rewarding.

I think an doctor's assistant has a important job.