Remember your job experience in February. Which jobs did you think of doing? Which companies did you ask?

I thought of working in a kindergarten because I like kids and I like playing with them. I asked one kindergarten in my village. I didn't ask another company or kindergarten because the first kindergarten I asked said yes.

Write a short text about your work experience that you had so far. Not only the internship, but maybe others, too. Would you like to do this job?

I had a work experience in a kindergarten in my village. I played with the kids and I read a lot of books to them. It was very good and the two weeks were really nice. I actually liked everything. One funny situation was on the last day of my internship. A few kids hung on to me and wouldn't let me go because they didn't want me to leave. I would like to do this job again because it is very interesting and nice for me. Working at a play school could be my job in the future. I also did babysitting for some kids in the fifth grade. That was also very good and really nice.

How could Nick and Melanie's conversation continue? What advice could she give Nick?

Nick: Hi, Melanie. I just got home.

Melanie: Hi, how was your first day?

Nick: Ugh, actually, it was awful.

Melanie: Really? Why? What happened?

Nick: Well, I was late and Mr. Cameron said that he was not happy with me. He told me that I had to be there on time.

Melanie: Hmm, OK...

Nick: And then I fell asleep at lunch and he said that I would have to work late to make up the time. And then, in the afternoon, he gave me a long to-do list that I had to do.

Melanie: Ok that is not so good but maybe Mr. Cameron is right. Maybe you should be better tomorrow. And go to sleep earlier today. Don't use your phone at work and do the things properly.

Nick: OK, I think you are right I will do that. Thank you sis.

Melanie: Yeah of course I can help you when you are in trouble. OK bye we can talk tomorrow about your second day.

Nick: Bye bye hear you tomorrow.
