

TBP. 86 B2 The job for you

Interview

Ben Cartwright: We talk with a young people.
Today in the studio Justin. Hello

Justin: Hello. I'm Justin. I'm 20 years old. I work
as flight attendant

Ben Cartwright: What do you do as a flight attendant?

Justin: I serve the passengers with drinks and eat us to see that the people are well. I am responsible for ensuring safety on board and cleanliness.

Ben Cartwright: What kind of hours do you work?

Justin: I always don't know exactly what to do,
sometimes at night, sometimes during the day.
I have to work 70-87 hours a month.

Ben Cartwright: Why did you decide to become flight attendant

Justin: I choose the job because I really like to serve the passengers and to see if you are doing well I also like to fly very much and find it cool to see different cities

Ben Cartwright: What is the best thing about the job

Justin: The best is to fly which I like to fly very much. I like that you have to deal with different passengers and can learn foreign languages. Besides, I like seeing a lot of different cities.

Ben Cartwright: What is the worst thing.

Justin: The worst thing is that you don't have regular working hours. Besides, I do not like so that I have to do the toilet and clean up.

Ben Cartwright: What Qualifications do you need for the job

Justin: It's not a training profession. I was trained theoretically and practically in a basic course lasting several weeks. The basic course ends with an in-house examination without a state-recognized degree.

Ben Cartwright: That's was the interview, Bye-bye.

B1 Angie's job

a) Read the sentences. Then listen to the interview with 19-year-old Angie again and tick the correct information.

- Angie is in her first year of apprenticeship as a cook in a hotel.
- Angie is in her last year of apprenticeship as a hotel receptionist.
- Angie is in her third year of training as a hotel manager.

b) Listen again and take notes.

New words: invoice - Rechnung; CV - Lebenslauf

Angie's job	Hotel Reception
What she has to do in her job	she help hotel guest check in when their arrived and check out when they leaved. Hang up room keys and answer questions from guest. takes reservations, and created invoice.
Hours she has to work	forty to fifty hours in the week. Once a month theirs a night shift and she also work every abse weekend. Thats a lot guests sometimes
Why she chose the job	she love hotels. But we didnt have a lot of money when I was young. we are pretty big family. So i did have a stats to stay hotel that often. The bustle and hustle of hotel
Best thing about the job	talking to the hotel cust and making them feel welcome and comfortable
Worst thing about the job	Night shift to week
Qualifications she needed for the job	She was the best student in high school, but i love english, italian and french. And you need language's of you want to be a hotel receptionist
How Angie applied for the job	There are three hotels in my hometown. I really made in average to write a nice CV when I was six. and I was friendly. The are apprentices last two years and I am in my second year now I have choose between two hotels the choice, wich would take me to Angie's advice for the listeners	when your plan for work placement or apprenticeship a light. Just remember in the first week of training you might have to up keys. But dont give up it get interesting. Quite quickly if you show that you're well learn.

B2 Dos and don'ts for work experience

a) Look at Nick's blog in TB B3 again. Mr Cameron is not happy with Nick in three different situations. What did Nick do wrong in each situation? Take notes.
