Nick's first day of work experience was a day of disasters and boring ~~tasks~~ tasks.

Nick's boss wasn't happy about the fact that Nick arrived late.

He had sent Nick off with a long job list and Nick had to ~~set up~~ sweep the ~~lab~~ floor, take old cardboard boxes to the basement and put shoelaces in trainers.

Nick fell asleep during lunch and woke up to late.

Mr. Cameron (his boss) told him that he had to work long today to make up the time then he sent Nick to the cash register but no customer came.

Nick texted his friends when Mr. Cameron appeared ~~at work~~ from nowhere.

He gave Nick another list with things to do until 5. Nick felt like he's been ~~working~~ weeping that store home and setting running shirts for his whole life.

In my work experience I would arrive ~~in time~~
~~be polite~~ in time and be polite.
I would help ~~and~~ and I ~~wouldn't~~ be on my phone while working.
