

Elephants in Thailand

Overview

You will work in the mountain forest of Northern Thailand in the tourism industry. You will spend your time in fields with elephants.

The area is famous for their elephants.

Volunteers will learn about the behavior of elephants and they will contribute directly to the elephants' wellbeing.

Location: Asia - Thailand - Chiang Mai

Program Type: volunteering

Highlights

- learn about elephants
- opportunity to observe elephants in their nature habitat
- learn about elephants from the local Karen community, who worked with elephants for centuries
- see elephants in a natural setting
- see their interacting with the forest
- see their interacting with each other as a semi wild herd