

a)

Elisa wrote about her last day at the internship in a doctor's office. She said that the internship was a lot of fun but it was also hard and interesting. She said that she could do a training. She liked to work with a lot of people. She would do another internship at the summer maybe a dentist.