

TB.p 96 A1

a)

It's about how the kids are helping each other in school. It doesn't matter which nationality the kids have all kids are helping each other.

b)

1. That means that she learned in school how the people are in America.

Ich habe auch in der öffentlichen Schule gelernt, was Amerika zum Ticken bringt.

2. That means they were a society and a ark.

Wir wurden eine normale Arche.

3. That means that they are helping each other.

Einer für alle und alle für einen.

d)

We have a lot of different nationalities. I don't have problems with the persons who has a different nationality. We are all person and it doesn't matter where we come from. We are helping each other when the person have a problem.