

People and Places-Box

1.They leave because of the war in some countries and maybe they don't feel good in the country.

They need a new start to begin a better life. That's why some people leave her country to begin a new life.

2.I think Germany is a good and attractive country for immigrants because Germany helping immigrants to survive and get a better life. Germany is s beautiful country to get a new life and to begin a new start in your life.