wrap, tiny cleats,

b)

I like the poem because she says the truth about immigrants. She represents the immigrants good and she don't says that the immigrants are not good.

c)

The poem is about how the immigrants are behave and what they are doing in there life. The author wants that they are finally realising that immigrants are normal people like the all other peoples in the world.

d) sun

If they weren't immigrants they could give the babies a better life or more and better food. But all peoples are treat there babies like all the peoples do. They want all a good life for the babies but sometimes they can't because of the money.
