

Textbook page 98 A4

a)

What do you learn about her, her family and Ellis Island?

Annie Moore had two younger brothers, Philip and Anthony and a older brother. Her parents had gone to America two years earlier with her older brother. Annie was the first immigrant on Ellis Island. Today on Ellis Island stands today's A Museum, a statue of annie. A statue of Annie and her brothers can be found in Ireland, where she begins her journey

b)

Choose a title for each of the six paragraphs.

1. Leaving Ireland
2. Mixed fillings
3. The Journey
4. Arrive in New York
5. Ellis Island
6. Annie's Statue

c)

Imagine you interviewed Annie when she arrived in New York. What questions would you ask her? What would her answers be? Work with a partner and write a dialogue. With Joanna

Joanna = Annie

Hannah = I

I: Hello Annie how are you?

Annie: Hello Hannah I am fine thank you. How are you?

I: I am fine. Where did you life in Ireland?

Annie: I lived with my Grandmother and my two younger brothers.

I: Did you have contact with you parents and your older brother?

Annie: No I didn't have contact with them.

I: How old were you when you traveled on the boat.

Annie: I was 13, Philip was 8 and Anthony was 5 years old.

I: Oh you three were very young.

Annie: Yes that is right, we were very scared.

I: How long were you on the boat?

Annie: We were 12 days on the boat.

I: Wow that is a very long time. Did people die on the boat?

Annie: No nobody died on the boat.

I: How was your start in New York?

Annie: It was very good I found new friends quickly.

I: Ok thank you for the interview, have a good time Bye.

Annie: No problem bye.