a) What do you learn about her, her family and Ellis Island?

Annie Moore and her younger brothers Philip and Anthony leave their Irish home and Annie was sad. But she was also excited to see her parents again. Her parents and her older brother had gone to America two years earlier. Her parents find a place to live in New York. Annie was the first person to leave the ship at Ellis Island. She got ten dollars as a gift by an official because Ellis Island was new and she was the first immigrant there. She couldn't believe it. Today a statue of Annie stands on Ellis Island in a museum.

How was your travel?

It was very awful and many people got sick because they had to share it with lots of people and the food was bad.

Why did you travel to America?

Because my parents and my older brother had gone to America to years earlier.

How you feel when you leave your Irish home?

I was sad to leave my Irish home but I was excited to see my parents and my older brother.

How you feel when you become the money?

I was very happy and I couldn't believe it. I had never seen much money.

Are you happy that you began a new live in America?

Yes but I missed Ireland.
