

B2 The job for you

a) Listen to the interview and read along.

Hör dir das Interview an und lies mit.

Interviewer: Today we are going to talk about young people and their jobs. And with us in the studio is Angie Devito. Could you tell our listeners a little about yourself, Angie?

Angie: Sure. Well, my name is Angie Devito. I'm 19 years old and I'm in my last year of training as a hotel receptionist.

Interviewer: What do you do as a hotel receptionist?

Angie: I help hotel guests check in when they arrive and check out when they leave. I also answer questions.

Interviewer: And what are the hours that you have to work?

Angie: Well, usually I work 40-50 hours, but once a month there is a night shift. I also work on the weekend.

Interviewer: And what's the best thing about the job?

Angie: Talking to hotel guests and making them feel welcome.

Interviewer: And what's the worst thing?

Angie: Night shifts during the week, when there's not much to do.

Interviewer: Were you good at school?

Angie: I wasn't one of the best, but I loved languages. And you need languages if you want to be a hotel receptionist.
