

The great Depression
 The market crash in 1929 in New York is named the great depression. It's named like this because it was a great and hard crisis. A part why that came about, was because many U.S. citizen financed with credit. In 1919 was the indebtedness about 100 millions. Later to 1929 the indebtedness reached the 7 milliard mark.

Timeline