

Textbook page 100 A6

I think Annie was sad to leave her friends. She probably felt nervous about staying on the boat for many days with her brothers. She was worried about what could go wrong on the boat. She probably was excited to see her parents and her brother. She was frightened when she heard they they had to spend several days on the boat. She was upset that she would no longer see her friends.