1) pros: friendly people, stress-free lifestyle, affordable cost of living, relaxed pace of life, different than the rest of the country, it is really unique, it's really friendly, people are finding new options to have fun, less stress, there's more room to move around

cons: the weather is unpredictable and extreme, climate can change by the hour, the weather is almost always extreme, life might be slower, every time more people are flocking to the region

2) I would say that living in the country is definitely something for me because the kind of lifestyle and the look fits my taste. I prefer a place with a stress-free lifestyle and friendly people that's why the life in midwest would something for me.
