

a)

1. She told them that she had been very nervous when they had boarded the ship.
2. She told them that she had hated the journey and the ship had been crowded and cold.
3. She told them that they had travelled in the hold of the ship.
4. She told them that she had been very happy when they had finally reached New York.
5. She told them that she had never spent Christmas away from home before.
6. She told them that she had got ten dollars as a gift and that she had never seen so much money before in her life.