Festivals

1. Complete the texts and match them with the photos.

Vervollständige die Texte und ordne sie den Fotos zu.

Chinese New Year is a colourful festival in February. People carry a dragon through the streets and have fireworks.

5

The $\underline{S} \underline{u} \underline{q} \underline{\alpha} \underline{r} \underline{r} \underline{r} \underline{e} \underline{\alpha} \underline{s} \underline{t}$ lasts for three days. People celebrate it with family and friends after Ramadan.

2

 $D \stackrel{!}{=} \stackrel{\mathsf{W}}{=} \stackrel{a}{=} \stackrel{\mathsf{L}}{=} \stackrel{!}{=}$ is the festival of lights.

4

It's the New Year festival for Hindus.

Hall o w e e h is very popular with children. They dress up as witches and ghosts and go from house to house.

3

In Great Britain children open their presents early in the morning of Ch \underline{r} \underline{i} \underline{s} $\underline{+}$ \underline{m} \underline{a} \underline{s} Day.

1

The 24th, Ch $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ $\underline{}$ Eve, is a normal work day.

On N $\stackrel{\underline{}_{\sim}}{=} \stackrel{\underline{}_{\sim}}{=} \stackrel{\underline{}_{\sim}}{=} \stackrel{\underline{}_{\sim}}{=} \stackrel{\underline{}_{\sim}}{=}$, the 1st January, people welcome the new year with colourful firework displays.

7

